NOTIFICATION

Subject: Summaries of the IPCC Working Group II report written by members of the AR6 Technical Support Unit, now available in Spanish on the IAI website

Dear Madam or Sir,

I am pleased to announce that the Directorate of the Inter-American Institute for Global Change Research (IAI) has translated into Spanish and made available on its website the summaries produced by the Technical Unit of Working Group II of the Sixth Assessment cycle of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC).

The three summaries are written for a broad audience and are titled: How climate change is impacting life on Earth; How to adapt to a changing climate; and How to secure a future liveable for All.

The documents translated into Spanish by the IAI Directorate, as well as the link to the original documents in English, are available on the IAI website.

The effort made by the IAI Directorate to translate the summaries reflects the institutional commitment to providing accessible and inclusive scientific information, to increase public awareness and to enable more effective decision-making on global environmental change.

Please accept, Madam/Sir, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Anna Stewart Ibarra
Executive Director
